IMPORTANT SAFETY INFORMATION: READ THE FOLLOWING WARNINGS BEFORE YOU OR YOUR CHILD PLAY VIDEO GAMES.

WARNING - Seizures

- Some people (about 1 in 4000) may have seizures or blackouts triggered by light flashes or patterns, such as while watching TV or playing video games, even if they have never had a seizure before.
- Anyone who has had a seizure, loss of awareness, or other symptom linked to an epileptic condition should consult a doctor before playing a video game.

Convulsions

Altered vision

Eye or muscle twitching

Involuntary movements

Loss of awareness

Disorientation

- To reduce the likelihood of a seizure when playing video games:

  3. Do not play if you are tired or need sleep.
  4. Play in a well-lit room.
  5. Take a 10 to 15 minute break every hour.

WARNING - Repetitive Motion Injuries and Eyestrain

- Avoid excessive play. It is recommended that parents monitor their children for appropriate play.
- Take a 10 to 15 minute break every hour, even if you don't think you need it.
- If your hands, wrists or arms or eyes become tired or sore while playing, stop and rest them for several hours before playing again.
- If you continue to have sore hands, wrists or arms or eyes during or after play, stop playing and see a doctor.

WARNING - Battery Leakage

Nintendo portable video game systems contain a rechargeable lithium ion battery pack. Leakage of ingredients contained within the battery pack, or the combustion products of the ingredients, can cause personal injury as well as damage to your hardware. If battery leakage occurs, avoid contact with skin. If contact occurs, immediately wash thoroughly with soap and water. If liquid leaking from a battery pack comes into contact with your eyes, immediately flush thoroughly with water and see a doctor.

To avoid battery leakage:

- Do not expose battery to excessive physical shock, vibration, or liquids.
- Do not disassemble, attempt to repair or deform the battery.
- Do not dispose of battery pack in a fire.

WHEN THE FARMER'S AWAY...

Straight from America's heartland comes a moving tale of friendship, adventure, and udder chaos! Welcome to the Barnyard, where animals rule and the barn-dances rock. Of course, as a member of the cow community, you'll be expected to pitch in, pull your weight, and party like the animal you are. So milk it for all it's worth with Otis, Miles, Pig, and the whole bovine brigade as they liven things up down on the farm.

SET UP

1. Turn OFF the power switch on your Nintendo Game Boy® Advance. Never insert or remove a Game Pak when the power is on.
2. Insert the Game Pak of Barnyard into the slot on the Game Boy® Advance. To lock the Game Pak in place, press firmly.
3. Turn ON the power switch. The title screen should appear (if you don't see it, begin again at step 1).
4. When the title screen appears, press START to proceed to the File Select Screen.
